

July 14, 1943

Mr. Thurgood Marshall
69 Fifth Avenue
New York, New York

Dear Thurgood:

Mrs. Chatman, whose husband was shot on Piquette and Brush on June 21, was in the office this morning. She had discussed her case with you, and since there is no information in our office we are referring this matter to you for disposition.

May we have your answer as soon as possible.

Very truly yours,

Gloster B. Current
EXECUTIVE SECRETARY

GBC:cd

Inclosure: case